POSSE CHICAGO

Dear Posse Nominee:

Congratulations on your nomination for the Posse Scholarship. If you're reading this, you've just completed your first-round interview. You were nominated for a reason, and we're so glad to have met you in person.

Now that you know more about Posse, it's going to be important for you to familiarize yourself with Posse's partner colleges and universities so you can narrow down which schools you'd like to be considered for. If you advance to the next round as a semi-finalist, we're going to ask you to let us know your top choice colleges or universities.

This booklet presents a brief profile of each Posse partner school. We hope you get excited about them; they are among the very best institutions of higher education in the United States. Take a look, but also research these schools further on your own.

Good luck and we'll be in touch soon,

Posse

CONCEPT

Posse started in 1989 because of one student who said,

“I NEVER WOULD HAVE DROPPED OUT OF COLLEGE IF I HAD MY POSSE WITH ME.”

The Posse Foundation identifies public high school students with extraordinary academic and leadership potential who may be overlooked by traditional college selection processes. The Foundation extends to these students the opportunity to pursue personal and academic excellence by placing them in supportive, multicultural teams—Posses—of 10 students. The Foundation’s partner colleges and universities award Posse Scholars full-tuition leadership scholarships.

THREE GOALS

1. To expand the pool from which top colleges and universities can recruit outstanding young leaders from diverse backgrounds.
2. To help these institutions build more interactive campus environments so they can become more welcoming for people from all backgrounds.
3. To ensure that Posse Scholars persist in their academic studies and graduate so they can take on leadership positions in the workforce.

OBERLIN

COLLEGE & CONSERVATORY

LOCATION: Oberlin, Ohio

CLOSEST CITY: Cleveland, Ohio

UNDERGRADUATE POPULATION: 2,900

WEBSITE: www.oberlin.edu

Think one person can change the world? So do we. From its founding in 1833, Oberlin has been at the forefront of history, becoming the first college in America to adopt a policy to admit students of color and the first to award degrees to women in a coeducational program. Students here apply nanotechnology to killing cancer cells; compose original plays and music; and devise new ways to sustain the environment. Oberlin's learning community combines a top-ranked liberal arts college, a prestigious music conservatory, and one of the finest academic art museums in the country—on a single campus.

QUICK FACTS

- » Our student body of 2,900 includes 6 percent from in-state, 86 percent out-of-state, 8 percent from abroad, and 25 percent people of color.
- » Oberlin offers 50 majors in the College of Arts and Sciences and eight in the Conservatory of Music.
- » Oberlin has 175 student organizations, 21 varsity sport teams, 500 concerts and recitals, a variety of film series and national speakers, and about 40 theater and dance productions each year. Sixty-three percent of students participate in community service, and 75 percent study abroad.
- » Students can choose from a variety of housing styles: traditional residence halls; program houses centered around a culture or language; or co-ops, in which students run the household and share meal prep.
- » Seventy percent of graduates further their education within five years of graduating, and 83 percent enter the workforce immediately. Finally, more Oberlin alumni go on to earn Ph.D.s than do the graduates of any other primarily undergraduate college.
